

Network to Find A Job

A proud partner of the American  JobCenter[®] network

Program funded with federal dollars. For more information, visit bit.ly/stevens-amendment. EO employer/programs.

Imagine you are a manager:

- You have a job to fill. You need someone dependable and capable. Right now, your team is stressed because they're doing extra work. The last person you hired quit without explanation after 2 months. Who do you prefer to hire (assuming both are equally qualified)?
 - A. Someone you don't know who applies to your CareerLink posting
 - B. Someone your friend knows personally and recommends

What is Networking?

- To interact with other people to exchange information and develop contacts, especially to further one's career.

Why Network?

- 80% of jobs are filled through networking before being advertised to the public!
- Here is the hiring process, simplified:

More Reasons to Network...

- Be considered for jobs based on transferable skills
- Employers prefer to hire based on referrals (networking) because:
 - Hiring is a risk, and employee turnover costs a lot of money
 - Employers care about who they work with

Where Do I Network?

Anywhere

Office buildings and businesses

Networking events and job fairs

LinkedIn

Who Do I Network With?

Everyone:

- Family, including extended
- Friends
- Members of your community
- Acquaintances
- People you meet at job fairs and other events
- People in your professional association
- Ex-colleagues
- Previous classmates

How Do I Network Online?

Join LinkedIn

- Include keywords for the job you want in your profile

Use other social media (Facebook, Twitter, etc.)

- Let people know you're looking for a job
- Connect with your target companies and interest groups
- Be professional

LinkedIn

How Do I Network Online?

- Remember to show netiquette (Internet etiquette). Don't say anything online that you wouldn't say in person.

If you're part of an online group, show netiquette by:

How Do I Network In Person?

Parts of networking:

1. Introduction – find a common bond/interest

2. State your situation (explain what you do, not what you want)

3. Gather information by asking questions

4. Ask for assistance

How Do I Network In Person?

Ask questions such as:

What are your primary job responsibilities?

What experience did you have to get your job?

How long have you worked here?

What is your own background and experience?

What is a typical work day like?

How much variety is there in your work?

How much training/supervision do or did you receive?

Networking in Person

Remember:

- Smile 😊
- Ask questions
- Be yourself
- Listen
- Don't be needy

Elevator Speech

An elevator speech (also called a personal commercial) can help you organize your thoughts when talking about your professional life. You should be able to say it in 30 seconds.

a quick introduction
(name, college you graduated from, degree)

what are you seeking?
(career goals)

experience
("Currently I am working for..."
Last summer I interned with...")

what can you offer?
(skills and how you would benefit an organization)

How Do I Use An Elevator Speech?

Your Elevator Speech can be used in many situations:

- Networking
- Job fairs and career centers
- Interviews

"I've got an elevator pitch, an escalator pitch, and, just to be safe, a stairway pitch."

Summary

- Employers prefer to hire based on referrals made through networking
- You can network anywhere and with anyone
- Networking is both online and in person
 - Primarily about building relationships and helping each other
- Prepare an Elevator Speech so you are ready to talk about your professional experience and goals

Thank You!

A proud partner of the AmericanJobCenter[®] network

Program funded with federal dollars. For more information, visit bit.ly/stevens-amendment. EO employer/programs.